What do you hope to gain from membership in RFAA?

- Improve my art skills through workshops, classes, demonstrations, plein air groups, critiques
- Show and sell my art in shows and at venues
- Share creative ideas with others through open studio/gallery sitting, brain storming sessions and more
- Support the development of fine art and artists in our community
- Other _____

We have no paid staff: our organization depends entirely on volunteer power. Your minimum volunteer requirement to participate in our shows is to attend one 3-hour Open Studio Session at the Fouts Road Gallery once a year. Your greater involvement is warmly encouraged.

I WILL VOLUNTEER TO HELP WITH:

- Curating (managing and arranging art displays in venues and shows)
- Publicity (collecting, designing and distributing RFAA information to various media, photographing events and activities)
- Computer-based tasks (E-Blasts, Website, Blog, Signup Genius, Newsletter)
- Hospitality (manage refreshments at meetings, show receptions and parties)
- Serving as an officer or committee chair, once I'm familiar with the organization
- I am willing to volunteer: Regularly___ Occasionally___ When called___

NOTE: We acknowledge the valuable contributions of volunteers in one of two ways.

1. You receive points for each service given, with rewards given for various point amounts.
2. You attend an Open Studio during a 3-month period and are eligible for a FREE 3-hour Guerrilla Workshop, taught by RFAA members with experience in an artistic medium.
