Artist agrees:

1. To be a member of RFAA in good standing.
2. All Submitted work must be for sale, two dimensional in nature, be original art (no prints or giclee), gallery wrapped (at least 1" thick canvas with finished edges) or framed, completed within the last 3 years and 'WIRED' for hanging. Medium may include the use of pencil, oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastels, collage and mixed media. No computer-generated art will be accepted. RFAA/Show Curator reserves the right to deny any entry due to controversial subject matter or improper staging.
3. The Bank will keep track of sales and will notify the show coordinator, Arlyn Huntzicker, of the sale. The artist will be notified immediately so the artist may replace a sold piece with a similarly sized piece that also fulfills the prospectus requirements.
4. The Bank will hold monies from sales and transfer them to RFAA Treasurer. A 20% commission on the sales price will be kept by RFAA and the remaining 80% of the sales price will be paid to the artist when the Treasurer makes a full accounting at the completion of the show. No prices will be changed during the show.
5. Registered work will remain through the entire show unless purchased. An artist who removes art early will be charged a 20% commission fee by RFAA.
6. To volunteer for 3 hours of Gallery sitting at ACE.
7. Read and sign Roswell Fine Arts Alliance Waiver of Liability found on the RFAA website.
8. Questions about the show should be directed to Arlyn Huntzicker at darlyn02@gmail.com.
