Artist agrees:

1. S/he is a member of RFAA in good standing.
2. All submitted work must be for sale, two dimensional in nature, original art (no prints or giclée), gallery wrapped (at least 1" thick canvas with finished edges) or framed, completed within the last 3 years and wired for hanging (no sawtooth hangers). Medium may include pencil, oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastels, collage and mixed media. No computer-generated art will be accepted. RFAA/Show Curator reserves the right to deny any entry due to controversial subject matter or improper staging.
3. The Bank will keep track of sales and will notify the show coordinator, Arlyn Huntzicker, of the sale.
4. Artists will be notified immediately of a sale, so they may replace a sold piece with a similarly sized piece that also fulfills the prospectus requirements.
5. The Bank will hold monies from sales until the completion of the show when they are transferred to RFAA. Artist will receive 80% of the sales price; RFAA will receive 20%. No prices will be changed during the show.
6. Registered work will remain through the entire show unless purchased. An artist who removes art early will be charged a 20% commission fee by RFAA.
7. To volunteer for 3 hours of Open Gallery at ACE through the Signup Genius page on the RFAA website.
8. Read and sign Roswell Fine Arts Alliance Waiver of Liability found on the RFAA website, if this is the first show entered in 2019.
9. Questions about the show should be directed to Arlyn Huntzicker at darlyn02@gmail.com.
